BROOKFIELD OFFICE PARK WINS CIVIC BEAUTIFICATION AWARD

Farmington Hills, Michigan, December 16, 2012 – Etkin is pleased to announce that the Farmington Hills Beautification Commission headed by Mayor Barry Brickner and Co-Chairs Carol Kurth and Jeff Stuart has awarded the City's highest honor for beautification to buildings One & Three at Brookfield Office Park. The 2012 award marks the fifteenth consecutive year Brookfield has earned this prestigious recognition.

“We are very proud of this important milestone for our Brookfield properties,” said Etkin President, Curtis Burstein “Thanks to Brookfield’s prominent location at the intersection of Northwestern Highway and Middlebelt Road, thousands of passersby each day get to catch a glimpse of how we consistently raise the bar for beautiful workplaces in Metro Detroit,” he said.

Etkin has played a prominent role in southeast Michigan real estate development and acquisition for 30 years. The privately-owned company was formed in 1982 and is led by Principal Douglas Etkin and President Curtis Burstein. Etkin has been involved in over 9.5 million square feet of office, industrial, retail, hotel and mixed-use developments. The company also offers fee-based management and development services to a select number of third-party clients including banks, credit unions, savings & loans, hospital organizations and physician groups.
